

TO TOM HANKS,

I watched the Pixar-Off how you reacted the Woody voice the Ellen DeGeneres show. I always watch the Toy Story 20th Anniversary Documentary. I'm okay with Toy Story 4 being released in 2018, because you already came up with the story. I have a better idea, you can let Toy Story Toys at Tomorrowland be released in 2019. John Lasseter the good dinosaur, rated PG. Since Toy Story was rated G, and John Lasseter's go on, is so bad, I decided to make the screenplay. It doesn't matter how edgy for kids or adult like for Woody being a not a nice guy. Don't worry after I promise they'll go on an exciting, live-action sci-fi adventure to find Frank and it will be a funny movie. Sincerely, Michael Deer
