There Once was a little girl named, Allie. She lives with her parents she always act like other kinds of animals. She likes to ride on cruise ships and take a look out on the ocean. Suddenly a storm came along. The ship starts to sink. Her mom puts her on a little raft, Allie asked, "Mommy, what are you doing?" The mom explained, "Don't worry about us! We want you to continue on this adventure! I promise we won't forget you!" As she washed away, Allie cried. Until then, Allie approached to the land of Africa. As she got to shore, she saw a bush shaking. It was a baby blue elephant. She asked, "That's one big elephant I ever saw! Can you hurt me?" (English words below) "No!" "I should call you Katlya!" Said Allie.

Four Months Later, Allie and Katyla walked through the jungle. Allie sniffed at the banana peel. She saw a little monkey on the tallest tree. Allie asked, "A little help here?" (Elephant English words below) "Sure will." So Katyla lifted Allie to the top. She sniffed at the monkey. The monkey sniffed at Allie. "Oo o ahh ahh!" said the monkey. "Oo o ahh ahh?" said Allie, "I love monkeys!" Suddenly, a man in a yellow suit is looking for treasure. He watches toward the sun, his eyes burn. The man puts a bottle of water on. Then his cell phone started to ring. He said, "Mr. Bluestberry at Professor Wiseman? How can I call more than one time? Hello? I found this piece and sorry you can't come. And... I'll call you back!"

Then the man saw the monkey. Allie hid behind the tree. When the monkey hid underneath the yellow hat, they played pica-boo. As the man leaves the hat, the monkey followed him onto the cruise ship. Allie stayed in Africa. The adventure continues,

Four Years Later, this is a real story. This is George. He lives with his friend, the man with the yellow hat, but his name that every one calls him is Ted. This real story starts where George lives is in the house in a country. He's a good little monkey and always very curious. When George woke up, he ran to his room. But he wasn't in his room.

When Betsy and Steve got caught up Charlie, Betsy asked, "Where are you going, George?" (George English subtitles below "Hi Betsy, I'm just visiting the man with the yellow hat in the museum!" "A museum! I wish I could go there." Said Steve, "Because Charlie can't be allowed in there, look!"

He pointed at the sign. "Okay, bye George!" Said Betsy. Before George came in the museum, the man with the yellow hat puts the papers in his binder and in the portfolio. His girlfriend, Maggie was trying to help him. She said, "Look, Ted, if you want to go to a journey to Africa again, I would assume to use your cell phone to call me if you need anything!" "Yap, I'm putting these papers in my binder and in my portfolio,"

Said the man with the yellow hat, "And yeah I do need my cellphone with me." Then George came through the window. The man with the yellow hat continued, "Hi George, what are

After Mr. Bluesberry and Junior Bluesberry left, Professor Wismen had a microphone and spoke, "Good afternoon! I heard the news of a lost girl in Africa for over four years! I need someone who could travel to Africa and rescue her!" So the man with the yellow hat raised his hand. She continued, "You sir!" The man with yellow hat spoke, "Since, I found the key and a monkey, I would like to do it again!" "What?" Professor Wismen thought. He said clearly, "When I found the key of a monkey and found George in the jungle, I want to go back to Africa to search for that lost girl! Can I do it again please?" "Well, okay!" She agreed, "You're ready!" Meanwhile,

George walked to the museum. Then a hairy dog ran up, jumped and kissed George. Steve and Betsey ran up and shouted,

The man with the yellow hat called out outside, "George!" George ran outside. (George English Subtitles below) "Where are we going?" "Looks like, we're going to the city!" He answered, "Get your suitcase, ready!" George ran back to his room and carried out the suitcase. Then a boy named, Bill threw a paper. He stopped the bike and said, "Hey, George! Where are you going, city kid?" The man with the yellow hat came out and said, "Oh, hi, Bill! We're heading back to the city!" "Okay, see you soon!" Bill forgot to say something, "George, wait, if you want, meet me back at kite flying! Have fun!" (George English Subtitles below) "Bye Bill!" "George!" The man with the yellow hat called out. (George continued English Subtitles below) "Coming!" So off they went back to the big city.

As they cross the Brooklyn Bridge, George loves the big city. They reached to an apartment. A doorman opened the door and said, "Welcome home! George, I brought my brother over to be a manager here!" The manager stared at George, angrily, he said, "Just kidding, George! Oh, I also brought Hundley to keep guard on you!" Hundley the weiner dog growled at George too. "Aw Hundley, Mr. SmellyPet! They just came for a visit!" Doorman said. "I'm so sorry! We're just on our way to settle in! Come on George!" The man with the yellow hat said. (George English subtitles below) "Bye Hundley!" Hundley growled. George and the man with the yellow hat, took the elevator,

The man with the yellow hat and George opened to their room. When George went to his bedroom, the phone rang. He answered, "Hello? You want in the museum, already? I'll be there soon! Bye Bye" George came out. (George English Subtitles below) "What's going on?" "Oh, I'm late for work!" The man with the yellow hat said, "We'll explain later, be a good little monkey!" (George English Subtitles below) "But, But, aww!" So the man with the yellow hat left and walked over to the museum.

They are having a meeting with Mr. Bluesberry and his son. Mr. Bluesberry brought in a new scientist, Professor Wismen. His son, Junior Bluesberry spoke in a microphone, "Ladies and Gentlemen! For over all of those years Dad and I are continuing to retire the job and move away! Professor Wismen is now in charge of this whole museum. Good luck and have a safe journey!"

George English Words Below) "Well I looked all over for ya and what are you up to with Maggie?" "Oh George, right after I found the gem and you, the little girl is still lost in the jungle in Africa, the man with the yellow hat explained. (George English Subtitles Below) "Oh, ooh, ooh, can I go with you?" "Sorry George, I don't want to forget you again." Said the man with the yellow hat. Maggie put her hand on his shoulder and said, "Ted, George is right remember that you also take George to see the elephant? Just trust George?" "Well alright, let's pack our smile and find that little girl" Said the man with the yellow hat, "You don't mind coming with us?" "So, they traveled on a cruise ship, across the Atlantic Ocean, over to Africa again.

Through the jungle sat a ki, The man with the yellow hat, George, and Maggie looked everywhere for the lost girl. George got so tired, in fact he wants to find a bathroom place. He grabbed the man with yellow hat's shirt. He said, "What do you want? Oh, you need to find a place to go to the bathroom? Sorry George, there's no bathroom in this jungle safari. Come on, George!" While George walks with Maggie and the man with the yellow hat, Allie saw a little monkey walking with them. Katlya hid behind the tree. She said, "Katlya? What's wrong?" She Peaked through the grass. Then George saw the grass shaking. He went back and Allie surprised

George saw the lost little girl. (George English subtitles below)
"Are you lost? What's your name?" "I'm Allie!" Allie introduced herself. (George English Subtitles below) "Where your parents Allie explained, "Well, the ship sank and I lost my parents.
(George English Subtitles below) "Where do you use to live?"
Allie told George, "I guess I lived in in the Country near to the big city." (George English Subtitles below) "That's where I use to live too. Come on! We go to get you home." "Okay," said Allie, "Come on Katelya you can come out now!" When Katelya came out of the tree, George felt so depressed in fact, he came out of the bushes and get the man with the yellow hat. He asked,
"Hi George, where have you been?" (George English Subtitles below) "Hey, I found something cool to show you!" "You want to see what's between the grass?" The man with the yellow hat asked. So George pulled him through the grass. Masha ran up with

When George, Maggie, and the man with the yellow hat got through the bushes, the man with the yellow hat held the binoculars and saw Allie lost. He said, "What a nice little girl." "I'm Allie!" She introduced to him. "Maybe we should take her home," the man with yellow hat continued. "And I brought an elephant," Allie introduced to her elephant, "Meet Katlya!" Katlya came out of the tree. The man with the yellow hat gasp. (George English subtitles below) "Can we keep them?" "I don't know, George?" Maggie explained, "Come on, Ted! She's lost and has no family!" Allie felt shy and hid behind Katlya. She continued, "Wait, wait, don't be scared we're not gonna hurt you." "Well alright" said the man with the yellow hat, take her back to the city! (George English subtitles below) "Hearay come on Katlya!"

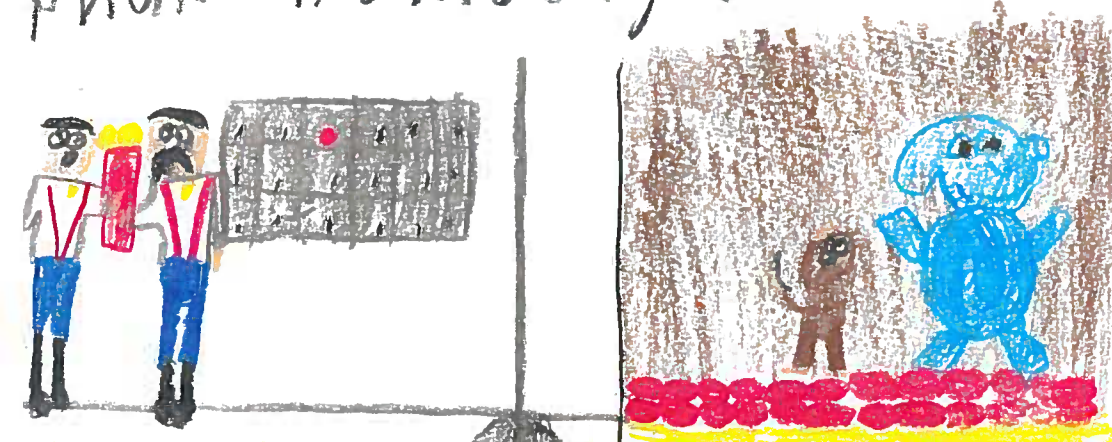

When Maggie and the Man with the yellow hat are taking Allie to the city, George took Katelya with him. While Maggie and the man with the yellow hat brought Allie on the deck, George brought Katelya on the big ship too. But, when the other person came on board, the captain said, "Sorry sir, looks like there's no room on the deck here, but we do have a room down in the basement." Then, George got an idea. The ramp pulled over and George and Kate went down below. And the ship sailed across the ocean. On top, the phone rang. The man with the yellow hat answered "Professor Wiseman? I thought it's Mr. Buesberry, Hello?" "Hi Ted, this is Professor Wiseman. Do you found a little lost girl in Africa?" Professor Wiseman asked on the phone. The man with the yellow hat replied on the phone, "Oh, yes! Her name is Allie." "Allie? Where does she use to live?" Professor Wiseman asked on the phone.

Then, the cellphone dropped through the vent on the floor. The man with the yellow hat panicked. Maggie felt worried and said, "Uh Ted, I think you're over reacting." "Oh right!" He said, calmly. Right under where Maggie and the man with the yellow hat are sitting, George and Katelya are eating apples, bananas, and any of the fruits until the cellphone landed on the ground. George picked it up and felt curious. The safari jungle music played. He thought it's a video game. But it looks like a mini telephone. So it is a telephone. So he dialed any phone number, what fun!

At the fire station, in the big city, the fire fighter picked up the phone and said "Hello. It's the fire station. Is everyone there?" George nodded, but didn't answer.

The fire fighter looked at the house and saw the flash.
He said, "There, that's where the fire is!" Meanwhile, the next morning, the big ship arrived back in the big city. As the door is opened, George and Katelya ran out on the dock and saw the big city.
(George English Subtitles below) "Wow! The city."
George and Katelya walked into the big city and they saw that Maggie and the man with the yellow hat took Allie straight to the hospital across the street. So they followed them. When George and Katelya are walking, the lady screamed Her husband said, angrily, "Will you stop screaming, it's just a monkey." Inside the hospital, Dr. Baker checked on Allie. He said "Looks like she's doing just fine. She is healthy, but not alone."

"How long did she been out in the jungle?" The man with the yellow hat asked. "Five years," said Dr. Baker, "because she lost her family when a ship crashed." "No body can survive in the jungle for so long," He said. "But where's her real home?" Maggie asked. "California!" Dr. Baker answered.

When George and Katelya came in the nursing hall, George climbed on Katelya and peaked through the window. He heard that they are talking about Allie misses her family and needed to find her home. Then George had a brilliant idea. He came into the door with Katelya with a big surprise. Allie gasp, "Are you George?" (George English subtitles below) "Yup, guess what I have!" "Katelya: Is that you?" (Elephant English Subtitles below) "Yeah!"

(George English Subtitles below)

"Why are you in the hospital?"

"Well now, I missed my family."

Allie cried. George putted his hand on her shoulder.

(George English subtitles below)
"Well I think I can help!"

"You could?" Allie asked. (George English subtitles Bellow)
"Yes I can! I heard that the man with the yellow hat is talking to Maggie about taking you home. Well what are you waiting for, let's go get my friend's help first." After George, Katelya, and Allie left Dr. Baker's room, Maggie and the man with the yellow hat came back and saw that Allie was gone. "Allie?" Maggie called out. The man with the yellow hat saw that George took Allie to ride with Katelya, to get help. He said, "Oh boy!" "What?" Maggie asked. Then she saw that they were leaving the hospital. She said, "Quick follow that monkey!"
Meanwhile, George saw that Charlie ran up and jumped on George, giving him a kiss again. Betsy called out, "Charlie, where are you? There you are! Whoah, is that an elephant?" Allie hopped down and introduced to her elephant, "That's Katelya!" "What's your name?" Betsy asked. "My name is Allie" she introduced to her self. "Aww, look a doggie!" Betsy introduced to Charlie.

"Bark, bark, bark!" Hundley barked. (George English subtitles below) Allie lost her family and we're on our way to take her home." "You want us to help you take her home to her family?" Steve asked. "Sure, George!" Betty said. (Elephant English subtitles below) "Well let's go get some more help." (George English subtitles below) "Good idea, Katelya! I know who can we find more help." As they're walking, Hundley peeped out the door and saw that George was riding on an elephant. Hundley barked, "Woot! Woot! Woot!" Then, Mr. Smelly pet and said angrily, "Do you smell something?" "What is it?" Door man asked, "Aw, he's not in the building, he's riding on an elephant on the street." "Well then, let me take care of this!" Mr. Smelly pet said, "George, I keep you, I don't keep Elephants!" "No sir, we're just taking Allie back home." (George English subtitles below) "Well good!" Mr. Smelly pet said. Hundley begged to go with them. Door man said, "Sure, why not!" So he let Hundley out the door and Hundley ran up to them.

Meanwhile, the firefighters looked at the fire alert map. The one firefighter said, "There's where the fire is." ~~Next~~ "Fire! Fire!" So the firefighters slid down the fire pole and hopped on 4 firetrucks. Right when George, Katelya, Allie, Betsy, Steve, Charlie, and Huddle almost left the city, they got so tired of walking. George spotted the bikes (George English Subtitles Below) "Look Bikes!" Steve look too and said "What? Oh! That's the bike race!" Then Betsy saw the a couple of bikes on the stand. She said, "Hey, why don't we use these bike ~~as~~ there." That gave George an idea. While they're all are ~~the~~ bikes to the country, Maggie and the man with the yellow hat saw them riding away. She called out "Taxi!" The taxi let them in and drove after them. The man with the yellow hat told him, "Look for the monkey on the bicycle."

The monkey and the bicycle." The taxi driver joked.
'No, the monkey on the bicycle!' The man with the yellow hat corrected the taxi driver. "You want to find the monkey on the bicycle, huh? Let's catch up with him," the taxi driver said. They rode on the taxi and chase them to the country.

Once when George, Katelya, Allie, Hundley, Charkie, Betsey, and Steve arrived at George's house, Allie said to George, "George, that's not my home!" (George English Subtitles Below)

"I know, look who's going to help us, on our way?"

Over on the downside of the hill, George saw Bill feeding ducks. They all came down to a pond and said, "Hi Bill!" "Hey George," Bill replied. "Who did you brought over?" "My name is Allie," Allie said. "I brought myself." "I brought myself."

"Sure, but you look terrible," Bill said, "but first let's go get you into your regular clothes. They went inside and Allie changed into her new clothes and pointed her hair back. Bill handed her a peanut butter and jelly sandwich. Allie felt curious, she put her fingers on the sandwich. She saw George eating his sandwich, so she ate it. When she came outside, she saw a rabbit cage.

Allie felt curious like George, she opened the cage. Then one little bunny ran out of Bill's yard. She chased after it. Right when George, Katelya, Hundley, Charlie, Betsey, Steve, and Bill came outside, they saw Allie was gone. Bill called out, "Allie?" But there's no answer. Meanwhile, Allie was chasing a bunny until she saw a squirrel. "Is that a squirrel?" Allie thought, "Oh gee, I love squirrels!" The squirrel got scared he ran away. Allie chased him too.

The squirrel ran as fast as he could and Allie was trying to catch him. The squirrel jumped over the pool and Allie jumped into the little pool. Suddenly, the pool slid down the hill, over the dock, and on a raft. Allie called out, "Help!" Then, George heard that Allie was screaming for help (George English Subtitles Below) "Allie is in trouble, we gotta help!" "Oh, looks like we got to help," said Steve. When they got to the far side of the cliff of the river, Betsey asked "George, what should we do?" Then, George remembered that he used to clean Mr. Glasse's windows at his glass place. He got an idea. So he ran inside the garage, tied the rope to his life vest and ran back to the far side. George patted on his life vest and Katlya swunged George until finally, he saved Allie. When Katlya pulled George and Allie up, Betsey said, "Allie, George, you're all right! Let's head back to the house!"

As soon as George, Allie, Katelya, Bill, Hundley, Charkie, Betsey and Steve got back at George's house, Maggie and the man with the yellow hat saw George and his friend at his house, he said, "There's George!" "So you saw the monkey on the bicycle, now with George?" the taxi driver joked. "Just stop the cab!" the man with the yellow hat said immediately. Once they got out of the car, the man with the yellow hat hugged George and Allie. Then he saw Hundley, Charkie, Katelya, Bill, Steve, and Betsey. He asked, "What are you guys doing here?" Steve explained, "Well, George thought of an idea about taking Allie to her family in California. Can you help, George?" Maggie put her hand on his shoulder and said, "Come on, he just want to help." "Alright fine, we got to take her home!" said the man with the yellow hat. So they all took a taxi and drove back to the city again.

Back in the big city, the 4 fire trucks rushed as fast as they could until they reached up to an apartment. Doorman asked "Hey, where you're going?" But they took the elevator. When they came in, the fire fighter asked, "So, where's the fire? Well we will have to shut them up where they won't do any more harm." Then, the other fire fighter saw a little monkey and his friends right close, but far from the apartment below. He said, "I know it was just a naughty little monkey. Quick, stop that monkey!" The fat fire fighter said immediately.

Mean while, the taxi pulled close, but a little far to the apartment. George looked over for a way to get to California. Then George spotted the way. (George English subtitles Bellow) "This way! Come on!"

The man with the yellow hat and Maggie saw they left again. He said, "George!" Then Maggie saw they were heading toward the train station. She said, "Noway, let's go!" Inside the train station George the trip to California. Maggie and the man with the yellow hat looked all over for them. He asked for the long age man, but he doesn't know where they are. Then he asked the people, the person talked to another person saying that they may be heading toward the entrance to the train. The man with the yellow hat found their way, so Maggie went with him. When George, Allie, Katelya, Hundley, Bill, Charlie, Betsey, and Steve came to the side of the train, ride behind the person, the conductor gasped. "Well, what a surprise! Looks like the boxcar is empty!" George saw the boxcar behind him. That gave George an idea.

Once they walked in a box car, the conductor locked the door. Then, the train started to leave and Maggie and the man with the yellow hat gasped and saw them in the box car. He asked, "There they are! How are we going to catch up to them now?" Maggie saw a caboose and said, "Ted, over there!" So they hopped on too. As soon as the fire fighters came in the train station, he saw them get away and said angrily, "You got to be kidding me!" The train headed out to California!

The next morning, the train arrived in California. When the conductor opened the box car, George, Allie, Katelya, Hundley, Bill, Charkie, Betsey, and Steve ran out and hurried on the road. When Maggie and the man with the yellow hat got off the train and out on the road, he saw surfers going by and the Hollywood sign on the back, he panicked and cried, "We're in California!"

When George and his friends came up to the street, Betsey asked, "Allie, do you know where you're home is?" "Let's see, it could be that way," Allie replied to the direction, "now we need a ride." The truck pulled over to pick them up. As Maggie and the man with the yellow hat saw they rode on the back of the truck, he joked, "Now it is going to be hard." The man with the yellow hat and Maggie ran as fast as they could to catch up.

As soon as the truck stopped at the farm, house, and to George, Bill, Handley, Charlie, Steve, Betsey, Katelya, and Allie had finally made it to Allie's home. (George English Subtitles Bellow) "We made it!" "Aaahhh! Now, I can find my new family here, come on!" said Allie. When they came inside, Allie called out, "Hey everybody, I'm back! Hello?" But there's no answer. "Where's anyone?" Betsey asked. Allie look at the picture of Allie and her parents and saw a rose on the side. Then she read the note: Dear Allie, Thank god you're okay! Five years ago, we'd never come back! You're our only child! Love you, sweetie!" So, where my parents?" Allie asked. (George English Subtitles Bellow) "Don't ask me, I'm trying to help you!" So he hugged Katelya. Then Maggie came in with the man with the yellow hat. The man with the yellow hat said angrily, "You see George? Allie's parents are gone and they didn't come home." Allie started to faint. (George English Subtitles bellow) "But I helped her find her way you're okay! Five years ago, we'd never come back! You're our only child! Love you, sweetie!" So, where my parents?" Allie asked. The man with the yellow hat said angrily, "You see George? Allie's parents are gone and they didn't come home." Allie started to faint. (George English Subtitles bellow) "But I helped her find her way

Suddenly, the firefighters came in and said, frustratedly, "There they are! Oh, catch them! Catch them!" George and his friends tried to escape from them but he got caught by one firefighter's arm and a fat firefighter caught the other. They said, "Looks like we will have to shut you up where you two can't do any more harm!" "No, wait!" said Maggie. But it was too late, they took Allie away and shut George in a prison for animals. He cried, All of his friends are in jail too. The next morning, the man with the yellow hat walked alone in San Francisco. He looked at the puddle below on the side walk. He remembered all of his memories with George. He remembered Pika-boo, eat fireflies to make their tongues glow, flying with George through the city, go to the magic show, and teach George how to ride a bike. Then Maggie walked up to the man with the yellow hat. She asked, "Hey Ted, what are you doing?" He replied, "You know, I love George so much! And I'm thinking of Allie loves George so."

Back in Animal prison, George was sad, but he was still curious. George wanted to get out. He climbed up to the window to try the bars. Just then, the watchman came in saying, "What's going on in here?"

He climbed on the wooden bed and continued, "Do you miss your friends?"

Are you sad? Do you want to go home?"

George nodded, sadly. "Okay then, come on down from there!"

The watchman said as he tried to bring George down. But he was too big and heavy. The bed tipped up, the bed tipped up, the watchman fell over and as quick as lightning, George ran out through the open door. The watchman cheered and said,

"Go on, and rescue your friends! I'll find someone that will chase you!"

George freed his friends in jail. And then he was lucky to be a good little monkey. Quickly and quietly, George and his friends walked away on and off to the telephone wires. He was free!

While George walks, he saw a military plane flying in the sky. Allie was waving at George bell calling for help. (George English Subtitles Bellow) "Allie." Bill looked up and said, "Na, city kid, that's the plane." (George English Subtitles Bellow) "Noit's Allie trapped on the plane

Bill looked again and said, "Wow! How can we get to the plane up there." George saw a balloon man giving a little girl, who was flying a kite, a balloon. He was curious again, He felt he mast like a bright red balloon. He reach over to the kite and gave to katelya and instead of one balloon he took a whole bunch broke loose. In an instant, Bill, Handley, Char kie, Betsey, and Steve grabbed on to Katelya. and they all floated up, up, and away. George was frightened. (George English Subtitles Bellow) "Look

(George English Subtitles Bellow) "Hey, I can see my house up here!" "Oh look, there's my house," said Bill. When George and his friends caught up to the plane, Allie was walking down the ramp. Mean while, Maggie was driving the man with the yellow hat's car and she saw George is coming up to the plane. She said "He's heading toward the plane, hurry!" Then there's his friend the man with the yellow... hanglighter. He said, "Oh no!" Then, there was trouble, the firefighters took the fire trucks again. The fat firefighter said, frustrated "Stop that monkey!" On the top, Allie saw Bill call for Allie "Allie, we're sorry for your family, but we got you back. But you have to jump!" "But I'm afraid of heights!" said Allie. "But, don't worry, I'll catch you!" So Allie jumped, but George tried to catch her first, then Katelya, used her trunk to catch them too, suddenly,

(Elephant English Subtitles Below) "No!" "Aaaahh!"

Allie and George screamed. Then, the man with the yellow hat saved Allie and George. He hugged them and said, "I gotcha! Hang on guy!" (George English Subtitles Below) "We got to head to the city!" "City?" (George English subtitles Below) "Look down!" So the man with yellow hat was being chased by the fire trucks. Until then, the police cars and trucks and motor cycles are chasing the fire trucks. The other firefighter asked "Uh, should we pull over?" "No! Don't let him get away!" Said the fat firefighter. Once they went to the city, down down they went - bump on to the top of a traffic light.

The traffic got mixed up. Every one is surprised. Suddenly, the fire trucks ran as fast as they could but then they crashed.

On to the top of the traffic light, George looked down and saw the firefighters getting out of their fire trucks. Then George remembered to tie the balloons to take off. (George English Subtitles Below) "I know!" So George walked through the pole and unplugged the traffic light. Then, the traffic light fell and crashed right on top of a fire truck. As the firefighters got out of their fire trucks, and when George climbed down from the traffic light pole, he saw the firefighters saying, "Oh, catch them, catch them, catch them!" When George and his friends tried to run away, the police cars, trucks, and motorcycles came to a stopping point. It was the watchman again. "Firefighter, you are in heat of trouble!" said the watchman. "But he did lots of harm for us," said the other firefighter.

The watchman said, "Well he's just a little monkey that misses his friends and you took that makes him doesn't belong there." He arrested the firefighter in the police truck. The fat

After the police cars drove away, Allie asked the man with the yellow hat, "Since my family are gone, where should I go?" (George English subtitles below) "Yeah, the same thing you adopt me?" Then the man with the yellow hat had an idea and said "That's it, I know the way!" At the adoption center, the man with the yellow told her, "Look, one time I kept my monkey, George and Allie has no family, so can keep them as my children?" The woman said, "Well, I guess I could say that a monkey and a girl could become adopted." "Do you hear that, George. We're finally, brother and sisters!" Said Allie excitedly (George English subtitles below) "Yay!" "And you the man with yellow hat, are my great dad, yipee!"

Six weeks later, when the man with the yellow hat and Maggie are about to get married, Professor Wismen asked them, "Do you both love each other for getting married and adopt a monkey, an elephant, and a little girl?" The man was happy and said, "Yes, I promise my love to Maggie!" So Maggie and the man with the yellow hat kissed for the bride. All of his friends including people in the museum applaud. Then the man with the yellow hat remembered something. He asked, "Uh, Professor Wismen, can I ask a question in a microphone?" "Go ahead!" said Professor Wismen. The man spoke his speech in a microphone, "Thank you so much for let George and I have a great adventure find a little girl, adopt them too, and finally got married. Now you children can now go look around!" Maggie cut the red ribbon and all the children played at the exhibits.

The children make art, climb walls, dig for bones, and even rode on a bike simulator. When the man with the yellow hat walked in a back of Mr. Smellypet, he turned around angrily, but he said, "About the monkey and the elephant, you can keep them for more room."

George told Mr. Smellypet. The man with the yellow hat asked, "Thank you, but we need more room to move out." George spotted a rocket ship at the space station. He had an idea. The Allie and Maggie walked up. Allie said, "Uh, man with the yellow hat, George and Katelya are getting on a rocket ship." "Come on, Ted!" said Maggie. "Sorry, I got to leave, bye!" said the man with the yellow hat. The kids looked out the window. Professor Wismen said, "Careful, Ted!"

Inside the rocket ship, the fasten their seat belt. Professor Wismen called in countdown "10, 9, 8, 7, 6, 5, 4, 3, 2, 1, Blast Off!"

Everybody waved goodbye. The rocket ship blasted off out of earth in outer space. As they're flying, the man said, "Here a way to fly home" (George English subtitles below) "I got it!"
